100 TREASURES FROM 1000 YEARS

BAVARIAN STATE EXHIBITION
SEPTEMBER 27, 2019 – MARCH 8, 2020
Regensburg | Haus der Bayerischen Geschichte
9 a.m. – 6 p.m. daily except Monday | www.hdbg.de

▲ GOBLET IN THE FORM OF A TERRESTRIAL GLOBE, 1618–30
The Royal Court, Sweden, Stockholm

THE BAVARIAN STATE EXHIBITION
“ONE HUNDRED TREASURES FROM ONE THOUSAND YEARS” LOOKS BACK ON
THE PERIOD FROM AROUND 600 TO 1800.
ONE HUNDRED EXHIBITED OBJECTS
FROM BAVARIA, GERMANY AND EUROPE
ILLUMINATE OVER ONE THOUSAND YEARS
OF BAVARIAN HISTORY AND HIGHLIGHT
BYGONE ERAS.

THEY RANGE FROM SHINY GOLD
TREASURES AND SINGULAR WORKS OF
ART TO EVERYDAY ITEMS THAT REVEAL
A GREAT DEAL ABOUT THE REALITIES
OF LIFE IN THOSE DAYS. THEY NOT ONLY
TELL OF FAME AND GLORY BUT ALSO
OF FATES AND DEFEAT, MYSTERIOUS
GOINGS-ON, AND EVEN CRIMES.

SO-CALLED BRIDAL CROWN ▶ OF DUCHESS HEDWIG OF
BAVARIA-LANDSHUT,
CA. 1720–25
Oberhausmuseum Passau

▲ EX-VOTO FIND FROM ST. THEOBALD IN GEISENHAUSEN, 17TH/18TH CENTURY
Historischer Verein Geisenhausen

This is documented by a bog body's boots, a hidden hoard of gold coins from the Thirty Years' War or an ex-voto find consisting of enigmatic clay heads. A manuscript of the Lex Baiuvariorum furnishes insights into Bavarians' oldest tribal law. A metal lock pick was a piece of evidence against a burglar in the 16th century and leather dog armor attests aristocratic passion for the hunt over 300 years ago.

Rare exhibited objects chronicle emperors and dukes, luxury and splendor and attest magnificent artistic achievements: the fibula from Wittislingen, the gem-encrusted Gospels from Niedertaich, the famous Lepanto monstrance, a whale's shoulder blade painted with a Venetian scene, an 18th-century planetarium and much more.

▲ LEPANTO MONSTRANCE, 1708
Bürgerkongregation Maria vom Sieg, Ingolstadt

◀ THE GOTZING DRUM FROM SENDLING CHRISTMAS MASSACRE, CA. 1700
Heimatmuseum Miesbach

Media stations and touch-and-smell stations allow further exploration with all the senses at many places in the exhibition.

BAYERN 2 AUDIO STATIONS

The Bayern 2 audio stations provide interesting information on select aspects of Bavarian history.

A “period face” greets visitors in every section: A Bajuvarii woman, Knight Templar, Anabaptist, merchant, and mirror coater introduce themselves in gallery-filling media installations. They tell about their lives and the way of the world – the village priest from Seehausen am Staffelsee ponders the French Revolution, the Anabaptist from Augsburg faith and persecution, the Jewish physician from Würzburg plague and medicine.

TAVERN

TAVERN

A tavern with beers from every region in Bavaria? The museum tavern keeper turns the tavern into a beer-tasting taproom – regional wines are included, too, of course. The menu offers a wide variety of treats from Aschaffenburg to Lindau on Lake Constance to make the culinary culmination of a museum visit perfect. The beer garden located right on the Danube with a view of the Old Town and the Stone Bridge has a special charm all its own.
